Israel and Manga: A Public Conversation with
Asaf Hanuka and Boaz Lavie
Winners of the Foreign Ministry of Japan's 9th International MANGA Award.

Date: Thursday, February 25, 2016

Time: 13:30~15:30

Venue: Room 321, building 3

Admission: Free

At this event, Asaf Hanuka and Boaz Lavie, winners of the Foreign Ministry of Japan's 9th International MANGA Award, will speak about their award-winning graphic novel, The Divine (2015) and then will join writer and journalist Roland Kelts in a public conversation about their work as well as the current state of manga in Israel. After their conversation, Mr. Hanuka and Mr. Lavie will answer questions from the audience.

This event is sponsored by the Faculty of Arts and Literature, Seijo University, with support from the Embassy of Israel in Japan and the Japan Foundation
